ADDITIONAL SUPERVISED RELEASE TERMS

1. Pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 16913(a), the Defendant shall register, and keep the registration current, in each jurisdiction where the defendant resides, where he is an employee, and where he is a student. For initial registration purposes only, the Defendant shall also register in the jurisdiction where convicted, if such jurisdiction is different from the jurisdiction of residence. If the state of residence is not accepting sex offender registrations pursuant to SORNA and unable to accept the Defendant's registration, he must maintain contact with state registration authorities and his probation officer to determine when such registration can be accepted. The duty to register may continue after the expiration or termination of the Defendant's federal supervised release and any existing duty to register under state law is not suspended and will remain in effect until the state implements SORNA of 2006. If the Defendant's supervision transfers to another federal district, the Defendant's duty to register as required by SORNA shall be governed by that district's policy and the laws of that state.
2. If computer activity is approved by the probation officer, the Defendant is required to install software to monitor computer activities on any computer he is authorized to use at his own expense. The software may record any and all activity on the Defendant's computer, including the capturing of keystrokes, application information, internet use history, email correspondence and chat conversation. The software will be checked on a random basis. The Defendant has no expectation of privacy regarding computer use or information stored on the computer if monitoring software is installed. The Defendant shall understand and agree that information gathered by monitoring software may be used against him in subsequent court actions regarding the Defendant's use of the computer and the terms of supervision. The Defendant must warn others of the existence of the software program. The Defendant is prohibited from removing, or attempting to remove, tampering or attempting to tamper, altering or attempting to alter, circumventing or attempting to circumvent, in any way the monitoring software program. The Defendant must comply with the rules set forth in the computer monitoring participation agreement.
3. The Defendant shall submit his person, residence, and all buildings at the residence, property, storage facility, and vehicle to a search at any time, with or without a warrant, by any probation officer or law enforcement officer with reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the Defendant.
4. The Defendant shall participate in substance abuse treatment, which includes random drug testing, at the direction of the probation officer.
5. The Defendant shall disclose all financial information requested by the probation officer.
6. The Defendant shall not open new lines of credit or make purchases on existing lines of credit without the probation officer's prior approval.
